Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-4, 6, and 9-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Applicant's cited prior art (JP Pub. No. 2001-222202).

The prior art discloses an image forming device comprising a main casing 100 (Fig. 39) having a front surface F and a rear surface R (Fig. 39); the main casing further having an upper surface and a rear surface being formed with a sheet discharge opening (Fig. 39); an image forming section 130 disposed within the main casing and including an input reception unit for receiving image data from an external source (inherent function, it's a typical function of a printer to receive printing signal from an external device, i.e. a computer); a process unit including a process cartridge 130 being attached to and detached from the casing through the front surface having an electrostatic latent image bearing member 131; an electrostatic latent image forming unit 132; a developing agent supply unit 133; an image reading section 110 disposed on the upper surface of the main casing and above the image forming section and including an image reader 110b to pick up image information from a document an output unit (Fig. 36); a document transport mechanism 52 for transporting the document past the image reader in a direction from the rear surface to the front surface of the main casing (Fig. 13, 15); an output unit for outputting the image information to an external device; a sheet supply unit 140 for supplying a sheet to the process unit provided at a lower section of the main casing and being attached to and detached from the main casing through the front surface of the main casing (Fig. 39); a transfer unit 134 for transferring the visible image onto the sheets; a sheet discharge tray 160 provided to the outside of the main casing at a position under the discharge opening for holding the sheets discharged through the discharge opening (Fig. 39).

The prior art further discloses a fixing unit 137 disposed in the main casing and above the sheet supply tray (Fig. 39), an access opening (i.e. X, Y, Fig. 39) is formed in the front surface for removing the developing cartridge, the sheet supply tray and the sheet discharge tray being disposed in a vertically overlapping with one another (Fig. 39), a document transport mechanism 150 for transporting documents past the image reader in a direction from the rear to the front surface of the main casing (Fig. 39).

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 1 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 2852

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
